New Business: Out of Season Coaching, what does the league define as out of season? It was discussed and agreed that the league does not consider coaches participating in open gym activities with players, current or future, a violation of out of season coaching. All WIAA open gym rules apply, coaches can supervise and participate as long as no instruction takes place and they do not work with an individual one on one. One school mentioned that, whenever possible, they do not have a coach on the same team as current/future players.

Baseball: Curt Nelson/ Softball: Charlie Groth:

Local officials will be used at home sites on 5/11. U-High will be serviced by the three associations (Columbia Basin, Colville Valley and Spokane).
